RE: People v. Eric Mauricio Ramirez-Aguilar Case 20CR01368

Santa Barbara County District Attorney Joyce E. Dudley announced today that Mr. Ramirez-Aguilar, a 40-year-old resident of Santa Barbara, California, pled guilty as charged to felony gross vehicular manslaughter while intoxicated, driving while under the influence causing great bodily injury and fleeing the scene of an accident that resulted in death.

The charges stemmed from a double vehicular manslaughter that occurred on February 9, 2020. On that date, Mary Jane Corral and her husband Adolfo Corral, parents of four, were out walking their dog on Cathedral Oaks Road at 5:20pm. Mr. Ramirez-Aguilar, who was intoxicated at the time, swerved off the road while driving his Nissan sedan, struck and killed the couple, and subsequently fled the area.

Sentencing is set for February 18, 2021, in Department 6 in front of the Honorable Judge Pauline Maxwell. Based on his guilty pleas to all of the counts alleged, Mr. Ramirez-Aguilar faces a maximum of 17 years 8 months in State Prison.
